

What is a Carnet or ATA Carnet?

An ATA Carnet (pronounced kar-nay) is an internationally accepted customs document used for boomerang freightSM. By presenting an ATA Carnet to foreign customs, your temporarily exported merchandise or equipment passes duty and tax free into carnet countries for up to one year.

At the end of the year, all the items listed on the carnet return to the U.S., thus the term boomerang freightSM. The ATA Carnet also serves as the U.S. registration of goods for re-entry into the U.S., duty and tax free.

Boomerang freightSM can be sales samples, trade show booths, repair tools, musical instruments, laptop computers, presentation equipment, tools of the trade, photography, film or video equipment. Unusual items like livestock, artifacts, circus animals, aircraft and yachts are also acceptable.

With an ATA Carnet from boomerang carnets you'll spend less time with Customs, more time with customers.

Your ATA Carnet Cost

The USCIB* determines the Basic Processing Fees (cost) for ATA Carnets. The value of the goods determines the basic fee.

Additional costs are typically incurred for the required security or other services. Call or e-mail boomerang carnetsSM for a quote.

* The U.S. Council for International Business was appointed by U.S. Customs, now an agency of the Department of Homeland Security, to manage the ATA Carnet system in the U.S. Typically, the U.S. Council issues over 12,000 carnets a year covering goods valued at over one billion dollars.

Benefits of an ATA Carnet

Cheaper. More Predictable. Easier. Without a carnet your goods will be subject to import duties and taxes. Plus, foreign customs clearance may require the services of a customs broker; which isn't free. You know your costs ahead of time to clear customs overseas and upon re-entry into the U.S.

The procedure to clear customs with a carnet is straightforward and hassle-free. You won't have to classify the goods for duty purposes in the foreign country or clear them as a costly consumption entry. Throughout the process you can rely on the knowledge and expertise of our ATA Carnet Specialists as an added benefit.

"I use carnets for 100% of our international shipments. Boomerang carnets offers great service. If a problem arises they handle it with excellent problem solving skills."
